Places to visit

Ranthambore Fort

- One of the ancient forts in India, the Ranthambore Fort is declared as the UNESCO world heritage site due to its historical significance.
- The fort is located inside the Ranthambore National Park, at the distance of 13 km from the Sawai Madhopur railway station.
- At the time of the Independence of India and the abolition of the imperial era, the fort was under the Maharaja of Jaipur and the Ranthambore forest was the exclusive hunting ground for the Royals of Jaipur Kingdom.

Kachida Valley

- Located at the periphery of the tiger reserve zone, the Kachida Valley is a place for the wildlife with the abundance of the panthers, bears and other wild animals as well as a distinguished mesmerizing landscape which having steep outcrops, small valley, low hills, ravines and water bodies.
- The lush greenery and tranquil surroundings make this place a true wilderness away from any human activity. You can visit here only through the Jeep Safari Ranthambore and explore the wilderness and the beauty of the Kachida Valley.

Things to do

Canter Wildlife Safari

- The Canter Safari is the Jungle tour allowed in the 20-seater Bus which is also all sides open vehicle to offer you the best viewing experience.
- The Canter Safari is also organized in two shifts in a day and 20 Canter is allowed in each shift.
- There are 10 safari zones in the Ranthambore National Park and the zones are randomly allotted to the safari vehicles at the time of entry by a computer generated zone allotment system.
- Each vehicle has to enter in the given zone only and is allowed to drive anywhere within the zone but only on the safari tracks.
- The sighting of the Majestic tiger depends on the sheer luck, but zone 1 to 6 are considered best zones when it comes to the tiger sighting as the most of the big lakes are in these zones and the chances of spotting tigers, leopards and other wild animals are higher near the water bodies.
