New Zealand - Explore the Real Middle-Earth!

- New Zealand (or Aotearoa – land of the long white cloud), truly is one of the most picturesque and photogenic places on earth.

- A small island nation of just over 4.5 million people, it is made up of two major land masses (North Island and South Island) and a number of smaller islands including Stewart Island located in the South Western Pacific Ocean.

Insights Of New Zealand...

- Capital : Wellington
- Currency : New Zealand Dollar (NZ) (1NZ = INR 48.70)
- Languages Spoken : English & Maori
- The best time to visit Auckland is at the end of fall (May) and the beginning of spring (September). These shoulder months offer pleasant temperatures and thin tourist crowds.

Auckland

Auckland, based around 2 large harbors, is a major city in the north of New Zealand's North Island. In central Queen Street, the iconic Sky Tower has views of Viaduct Harbor, which is full of super yachts and lined with bars and cafes. Auckland Domain, the city's oldest park, is based around an extinct volcano and home to the formal Winter gardens. Mission Bay Beach is minutes from Downtown.

Rotorua

Rotorua, a town set on its namesake lake on New Zealand's North Island, is a cultural centre for the indigenous Maori people. Te Puia cultural centre, in the Whakarewarewa valley, has geysers and thermal mud pools fueled by the area's geothermal activity, and houses the New Zealand Maori Arts and Crafts Institute. The Pohutu geyser here erupts many times daily.
