Overview

- Home of the glorious Golden Temple, the iconic city of Amritsar, portrays the heroic character of the Punjab.
- This place is also famous for its Jallianwala Bagh memorial and its proximity to Wagah Border.
- From the Operation Blue Star in the Golden Temple to the tragedy of the Jallianwala Bagh memorial, Amritsar has seen the worst of situations and yet emerged like a phoenix through testing times.
- Amritsar today is a thriving city with active trade and tourism industries.
- One of the most agriculturally productive cities of India, Amritsar is well connected with most of the important cities of India
- Best time to visit Amritsar is during November to January

Places to Visit

Golden Temple

- Tangibly the most spiritual place in India, Golden Temple, also known as Sri Harmandir Sahib.
- It is a place that can only be experienced and not described.
- The Gurudwara teaches the lesson of egalitarianism and humility.
- The four entrances of this holy shrine from all four directions, signify that people belonging to every walk of life are equally welcome.

Jallianwala Bagh

- Located near the famous Golden Temple of Amritsar, the Jallianwala Bagh is a public garden which houses a memorial to commemorate the massacre of peaceful celebrators by the British forces.
- The place has been turned into a beautiful park and is managed by the Jallianwala Bagh National memorial trust.
- A light and sound show is hosted here every evening.

Maharaja Ranjit Singh Museum

Summer palace turned into museum, Maharaja Ranjit Singh Museum is a lovely building which archives the Royal Heritage of Maharaja Ranjit Singh such as arms and armour, outstanding paintings and century old coins and manuscripts.

Khair-ud-Din Masjid

Famous for its architecture, Khair-ud-Din Masjid was established by Mohd. Khair-ud-din. It was the place from where the great call for waging war against the looting British was announced by Tootie-e-Hind, Shah Attaullah Bukhari.

Bibeksar Sahib

Bibeksar Sahib lying on the banks of Bibeksar Sarovar was constructed by Maharaja Ranjit Singh. The place is famous as the congregation site of followers of 6th Sikh Guru, Hargobind Singh ji.

Wagah Border

The Wagah border, often called the "Berlin wall of Asia", is a ceremonial border on the India–Pakistan Border where each evening there is a retreat ceremony called 'lowering of the flags', which has been held since 1959.

At that time there is an energetic parade by the Border Security Force (B.S.F) of India and the Pakistan Rangers soldiers.
